NEWS

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN TEACHING LANGUAGE (S) AT OVERTIME PAY RATES IN CIA'S NEW DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM?

In conjunction with the new Language Development Program, first announced in the NEWS section of your OTR Bulletin, September issue, page 11, the Language and Area School/TR now is preparing a Foreign Language Instructors | Roster of persons qualified to teach foreign languages. LAS/TR plans to offer internal morning and evening nonduty hour (before 0830 and after language classes to 1700 hours) Agency employees desiring to participate in the voluntary language study program.

Those of you who are prepared to offer your services, compensated at standard Government overtime pay rates, as instructors in any language(s) and/or as contributors to the preparation of necessary texts and recordings, are invited to contact the Language and Area School/TR at your earliest opportunity to discuss the matter!

As the School initiates this volunteer employee language training activity, members of the Roster will be called to teach the enrolled students, and it is hoped that by this utilization of CIA instructor talent it will be possible to reduce significantly the need for contract non-Agency teaching personnel. As a matter of fact, by this "internal" approach OTR hopes to provide a double service: To provide instruction to employees interested in systematic voluntary language study without cost to them and to enable Agency employees who want to teach language(s) an opportunity to be paid for exercising their talents! This announcement. therefore, is an invitation to all of you to register for Roster duty immediately!

Most courses will conform to a uniform standard; they will be specifically directed toward assisting persons to qualify at the levels of comprehensive proficiency designed for the Foreign Language Development Awards. An instructor normally will teach one 5-hour per week class scheduled by the School during nonduty hours. Instructor compensation will be at the normal Government overtime rate calculated on the basis of 7 1/2 hours a week per class (5 hours of instruction plus 2 1/2 hours of preparation). Compensation to persons preparing texts and recordings also will be on the regular overtime basis.

Any person, trained linguist and language instructor able to handle an individual class, or native speaker without teaching experience but able to serve as a drill-master and prepare recordings, is eligible for this new activity. Moreover, both professional and clerical employees, without reference to grade or sex, will be included.

Each instructor will be given a systematic introduction to the practices and techniques used in the School's overall language training program.

Those of you who desire to take advantage of the opportunities offered by this new Agency emphasis on language training may call extension 4437 for information and roster application forms. If you desire to discuss this development with the Chief, Language and Area School, please call extension 8015.

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS - FISCAL '58 NOW BEING ESTIMATED AGENCY-WIDE

During February revised forms for estimating training requirements were distributed throughout the DD/S, DD/I and DD/P. These forms, when completed by the individual components, should give OTR a fairly firm indication as to the training needs of the Agency through FY 1958, course by course. Further, it is hoped that these forms will reflect the desires of the individual components for any new, not presently offered, courses of instruction. OTR on its part, will endeavor to adjust its teaching efforts and administrative machinery to meet these requirement forecasts. It is believed that the deadline of March 29 permits sufficient time for Agency components to prepare the estimates; however, if you cannot meet this deadline please contact Plans & Policy Staff/TR, on extension 3531, at your earliest opportunity.

WIVES OF STAFF EMPLOYEES ARE INVITED TO CONTRACT AS LANGUAGE INSTRUCTORS

The Language and Area School/TR frequently needs to employ, on a contract basis, speakers with a native fluency to serve primarily as drill instructors in semi-intensive (parttime) and intensive (full-time) language courses. Such instructors, enployed for from two to eight hours a day during a course, teach a normal minimum of 10 weeks. The School usually can arrange part-time teaching assignments to meet the instructor's convenience.

In general, previous experience in teaching foreign languages is not required; drill responsibilities are carried out under supervision of a staff scientific linguist who provides the basic instruction.

Wives of many CIA staff employees have the competences required to provide this type of instructional support to language courses. LAS/TR extends to them the opportunity for employment in the Agency's language program. Staff employees whose wives are interested in this opportunity may advise LAS/ TR through preparation and submission of a special information form, available by contacting extension 4437, and the standard Personal History Statement. On receipt of these forms, an early interview will be scheduled. Subsequently, the School will communicate with the employee when an instructional assignment is available to his wife. For information regarding this teaching opportunity, 25X1A9a you may contact extension 4437.

Summaries of the lectures, in English, will be provided in the "Understanding and Dealing With Foreign People" talks, and also in a few other instances.
